Cookin southern soul-rock with powerhouse vocals, gutbucket guitars and an earthy-vibe running deep. Digging deeper and pulling out another kind of wonder with this one. A Tupelo stew that warms the insides-food for the soul. 13 MP3 Songs ROCK: Roots Rock, BLUES: Delta Style Details: From the Tallahassee Democrat: 'It's Tupelo, honey ... the songs blend N'Awlins-style blues with spare Appalachian acoustic grit, Southern rock grooves, '60s flower-power dreaminess and rootsy rock. Ricky plays a mean dobro, peeling off riffs as slick and juicy as a ripe peach, and Micol's voice is both steely and delicate, like a cross between Bonnie Raitt Emmylou Harris ...' BMT's sound is a southern blend with Universal appeal ... Mississippi stomp, earthy funk, bittersweet melancholy, sunny souL-rock, Appalachian attitude. BMT's original songs are testimonies; Sometimes reflective, sometimes carefree ... always in the groove. Micol Davis's amazing voice has been described "a revelation". With her tambourine thumping gospel-tinged humming of the piano, the music shines! Ricky Davis's voice is drenched in soul his musicianship has been compared to those among the most revered. From strat to steel, Ricky handles his guitars thoughtfully with style! Blue Mother tupelo's powerful beautifully tender vocal harmonies intertwine to create a unique blend of music that's guaranteed to move anyone's soul!
