Gritty strong lyrics with phat beats. A definite buy for the true hip/hop rap lovers. 12 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: Hardcore Rap Details: Breeze was born and raised in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. As Kenneth J. Spears, he began producing music in 1988 when he returned to Milwaukee from Colorado where he attended College. Breeze was working as a teacher in Milwaukee's inner city public school system. As a teacher, he has passed on his love of music and art to the children he taught by volunteering to direct talent shows and dances within the school as well as being a positive role model for the youth. In 2003, Breeze made a conscious decision to take a leave of absence from working to dedicate his time to his music. In 1997, Breeze produced his first CD entitled "We Getz Down". This was a compilation of local artists. This CD took 3 years to perfect. Songs from this CD received radio play and sold well in stores. In 2001, the second CD entitled "Dead Serious" was released. Preceding this release was a single "Why U Do Whatcha Do". This CD is a compilation of local artists. In 2003, Breeze has blown the hinges off with his new CD entitled "Re-up". This CD is his best work yet teaming up with artists such as John Doe, Breeze's cousin A.M.O.S, and his nephew Blessed. The work speaks for itself.
