Details: Be sure to check out Bryan's website: bryanclarkmusic.com MP3.com: "If Sting was from Texas, he'd be named Bryan Clark" Daily Texan: "Bryan Clark is a rising star to watch. Carrying the torch for the new breed of Texas singer-songwriters." Guitar Nation - This could be one the years best CDs. "Work Songs of Love" is for music lovers. Serious lyrics. Serious guitar/dobro." Guitar Player magazine - "Bryan Clark has a jazz-funk sensibility akin to Hollywood studio cats like Lee Ritenour, Larry Carlton, and Steve Lukather. An understated composer with echoes of vintage Pat Metheny, Clark exploits space and timbre in his long, modally tinged, melodic passages." EAR magazine: "A truly unique artist. His ability to mix and transform genres is a pure delight for the ears." Listen.Com: "Bryan's influences are wide ranging to say the least. Classical meets improvisation here with no genre (inc. rock and bluegrass) left unexplored."
