70's AOR songwriting prowess meets contemporary indie rock sensibilities. Produced by Andy Chase (Ivy, Tahiti 80) As heard on KCRW, Los Angeles. 5 MP3 Songs POP: Quirky, POP: Beatles-pop Details: "I have become totally and utterly and unapologetically addicted to Daydream, the debut EP from Los Angeles' soon-to-be stars, Buva. How could I be anything but hooked on this Todd Rundgren-meets-Jellyfish -meets nobody else ear-candy?" So says mundanesounds.com's Joseph Kyle of Buva's debut ep titled Daydream. After recording demos at their home studio in Los Angeles, Buva gave a cd to producer/musician Andy Chase(Ivy, Tahiti 80, Smashing Pumpkins) who invited Buva to New York to finish, polish and mix 5 of the tracks that became the Daydream ep. The Daydream EP was co-produced and mixed by Chase and recorded in Los Angeles and New York in the summer and fall of 2003. Buva has received airplay from radio programming giant Nic Harcourt on KCRW in Los Angeles as well as University of Oregon DJ Craig Leve's Snap Crackle Pop! radio program. Songs have been featured on the tv shows The OC, Smallville, Boston Public and the films Me, Myself Irene and Stuck On You. Buva is currently recording new material to be released as a full length later in 2004.
