Details: Dreams of University originated in the fall of 2004 in Muncie, IN. The band started with just three guys (Zack, Logan, and Sheldon) practicing constantly in "the barn" at Logans house, never really reaching their potential. There was just something missing. The name Dreams of University was not put into play until the spring of 2006. The band finally found what was missing that summer when they were invited to be a part of the Young Musicians Club, a program run by their soon-to-be-manager, Alan Maugherman. The 3 met up with Colin and Brett and began realizing the possibilities that they brought to the table. The band began exploring multiple genres, mainly going from an alternative band to a faster, more upbeat sound of Power Pop. DOUs first self-titled album was released on May 1, 2007. The bands first big break came when their fans voted for them to open on the Honda Civic Tour for one of the biggest bands of their generation, Fall Out Boy. Since then the band has been played on popular radio stations including 99.5 WZPL and had many opportunities to play at various venues, including Maughermans all-ages club, the Launching Pad. Through it all, the band recognizes that their fans and friends are the backbone of their success and looks forward to continuing to create music for everyone to enjoy. Their main goal is to simply have fun, not hold back, and be as crazy and exciting as humanly possible.
