From the Broadway Cast of Oprah Winfrey's "THE COLOR PURPLE", GAVIN gives you SOUL MUSIC about lifes situations broken into three parts. 12 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Soul, URBAN/R&B: R&B Pop Crossover Details: Gavin Gregory is not just a singer but also a song stylist and an actor. Raised as a child in Warren, Ohio and born into a man in Atlanta, Georgia, Gavin was accustomed to hearing great soul music as a child with his Mother Father constantly supplying the household with soul legends like Aretha Franklin, Stevie Wonder, Donnie Hathaway, and Marvin Gaye. As he matured his oldest brother, a jazz musician, bought him his first instrument, a trumpet. From there his musical tastes broadened and he was exposed to great jazz vocalists and musicians such as Al Jarreau, Dianne Reeves, Ella Fitzgerald, Sarah Vaughn, Santana, and Tower Of Power to name a few. Gavin moved to Atlanta, Georgia where he dealt with aspiring producers but got involved in musical theatre as well, working in some of Atlantas most prestiges theatres such as The Alliance Theatre, The Fox, Actors Express, and Seven Stages. He was then cast in Disneys The Lion King and in 2006, a dream came true as he was cast in the Broadway hit, Oprah Winfreys The Color Purple. Finally he made it to Broadway! He has just released his first full length CD/Album First Time Around. Its all about lifes situations hes experienced, broken into three parts. Part 1. Where Is The Love: songs about questionable love, Part 2. A New Love: songs about the courtship of a fresh relationship, and Part 3. Good Love: songs about how love feels when youre in a great relationship. Embarking on a career for film, stage, and music, Gavin is primed to be the next big thing in entertainment.
