Blending backgrounds in many styles, we present Irish music in a decidedly American fashion. True, the band's third CD was produced by the legendary John Doyle, former guitarist with Solas and Eileen Ivers. 15 MP3 Songs WORLD: Celtic, FOLK: Traditional Folk Details: Knot Fibb'n has played the Dublin Irish Festival, Columbus Arts Festival, the Ohio State Fair, the Old Tyme Folk Music and Celtic Music Festivals in Waynesville, Dayton Feis 2000, the Highland Folk Festival in Delaware, Middfest in Middletown, the Multicultural Festival in Parkersburg, WV, and various other festivals and concert series. The band has also played many of the Irish-themed pubs and clubs in the Central Ohio, Cincinnati and Dayton areas, and has opened for the Nashville-based Ceili Rain, popular Irish musician Larry Kirwan and his Bronx, NY-based band Black 47, Irish rockers The Prodigals, and Cape Breton, Nova Scotia fiddling sensation Natalie MacMaster. Their second CD, Knot Loitering, produced by Narada recording artist John Whelan, is currently enjoying airplay on Celtic and popular radio shows across the United States as well as Ireland, Canada, New Zealand, and Australia. The group's third CD, TRUE, was produced by the legendary John Doyle. Knot Fibb'n audiences are diverse: the band appeals to all ages and races and reaches out to traditionalists as well as individuals not familiar with Irish music. From tender ballads to exquisite airs, rollicking reels and danceable jigs, the band members' love of performing and playing together is evident and consistently noted by fans.
