World pop music influenced by French, Greek, Latin, American, Religious, Judaica, Singer/songwriter, Arabic, Persian, Cabaret, Catholicism, music for the 21st century. 18 MP3 Songs POP: with Live-band Production, WORLD: World Fusion Details: This Chilean-born songwriter, who lives in Silverlake, Los Angeles, once fell under the spell of history, international singers, and the old world and its religions, which, along with an affinity for travelling, inspired his songwriting. He began performing in Los Angeles' cabaret and burlesque scene, playing at venues such as Tangier, Vermont, Vitello's, M Bar, the Gardenia and Bricktop's, as well as in a variety of restaurants and shows. In Fall 2005 his music was featured in the musical Night Of The Black Cat, and in early 2006 he self-released his first album "Promis". In July, 2006 he played his first international gig in Paris (through contacts made via Myspace), and landed a song on a French record label compilation. His second album "Promis 2" came out in May, 2007, and was greatly influenced by the music of Greece, France, Russia, the Arab world, Portugal, Persia, the Mediterranean and so forth. Thanks to the internet and the possibilities it has offered, he has managed to create something of a career as an independent artist!
