Gentle words and touching music for comfort and hope during the grieving process 7 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Background Music, NEW AGE: Healing Details: Reflections on Grieving is a booklet that gently describes the grief journey and offers comfort through the mourning process. Tami Briggs composed the music so that it correlates with the various stages of grief mentioned in the book. The solo harp selections were inspired by having played at the bedside of hospital and hospice patients and families who are experiencing grief and loss. BIOGRAPHY Tami Briggs, founding principal of Musical Reflections, Inc., is a therapeutic harpist, composer, recording artist, and national speaker. She has played the harp at the bedside of hundreds of hospital and hospice patients, using her musical experience and her clinical training to address the immediate needs of the patient, the patient's loved ones, and the professional staff. Tami has completed a scientific research study measuring the benefits of live harp music on oncology patients. A dynamic facilitator and presenter, she works with both large and small groups educating them about the healing properties of harp and therapeutic music. She has completed 12 CDs; Grace Notes: Reflections on the Harp and Healing is her first book, which also includes a CD.
