Sultry alternative rock - intimate vocals, distortion, sweet ballads, and even a vampire song. 10 MP3 Songs ROCK: Folk Rock, FOLK: like Ani Details: The members of the band on "a million for ten" are bassist/singer Caitlin Jaene, guitarist Fonzo, drummer Tim Jedlicka, and pianist Mark Gionfriddo. Caitlin Jaene is a singer/songwriter from Washington DC. Classically trained on the upright bass, she has had the pleasure of playing many wonderful stages including Constitution Hall, the Kennedy Center with the MCYO, and twice at Carnegie Hall in NY with the National Youth Orchestra (1996 and 97, second chair in '97)! Now that she has graduated from Mount Holyoke College (magna cum laude :) in biology) she has moved to Hoboken, NJ. You can find her playing her new guitar across the river in NYC. Guitarist Fonzo studied classical guitar in Puerto Rico with the well-known Jimmy Velazquez. On the electric guitar he did sessions there for many artists including John Secada who had the US hit "Just Another Day Without You" in the early 90's. A graduate of SUNY Purchase College Conservatory of Music, Tim Jedlicka has spent the past two years rockin' the drum set for his former band Ultrawhite in NJ. They played frequently in Asbury Park and NYC. A talented keyboardist from Holyoke, Massachusetts, Mark Gionfriddo is in much demand in the New England area as a versatile session player. He is Director of Jazz Ensembles at Mount Holyoke College and Choral Director at Bay Path College.
