Fusing intelligent piano-based songwriting with mod electronics, this Brooklyn collective's debut album is positioned at the unlikely crossroads of Ben Folds, The Postal Service, and The Cure. 10 MP3 Songs
POP: Piano, ELECTRONIC: Pop Crossover Details: New CD's are here! New packaging! Same great taste! Started by film and theatre composer drew Edwards, this Brooklyn, NY band's debut is a moody collection of wistful, anthemic, hook-filled songs resonating with New Wave elegance, lyrical songwriting, and piano driven melancholy. The single, "boy wonder," and others have been generating buzz with listeners from California to the UK since early demos were first circulating on the internet. With live performances described as "raw," "untamed" and "the best thing here!" Cellardoor is preparing to get lodged in the head of the world.
