Upbeat country music with an edge, set to intelligent lyrics that thoughtfully reflect everyday life. 12 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Rock, COUNTRY: Modern Country Details: Charly is a multi-faceted artist, holding her own as vocalist, keyboard player, songwriter and bandleader. Whether on stage with her band, pumping out high energy country dance music at nightclubs, casinos and community events, or in the studio working out chords, riffs and grooves for one of her songs, Charly is an undeniable musical force. Charly wrote words and music to all 12 songs on her CD, HEART's DESIRE. She also co-produced the album. The master sessions were recorded at RIFKIN PRODUCTIONS in Santa Monica, CA.

Mastering was done at MASTERFONICS in Nashville, TN. Songs from the CD have received radio airplay on approximately 100 stations across the U.S. Unaffected and easy to listen to, yet passionate and convincing, Charly's style is melodic, hooky and decidedly country, with influences of rock, blues and R&B readily detectible. Her songs reflect the everyday realities of city life, while maintaining a country sensibility. Often social-themed, always matter-of-fact, Charly's songs allow the listener to draw his/her own conclusions. The songs are primarily upbeat and have a refreshing diversity from one song to the next. Styles range from the bluegrass-with-a-modern-edge title cut, "Heart's Desire"; to the bluesy, R&B flavored ballad, "Since You Went Away"; to the brooding, groove-laden, "Turnip Truck". The lyrical content ranges from provocative topics such as drugs ("Society Owes Her a Living"), domestic violence ("One Fine Day"), and the plight of the single parent ("Single Parent Home"). But it's not all serious! On the lighter side is a story song about divorce ("Ain't Askin' for Much"), a ditty about shopaholics ("Shop Til You Drop") and a call to dancers and honky tonkers to come "Dancin' Tonight".
