Are numbers able to connect passion belief? 37 years of piano performance; 28 years singing; 27 years songwriting; 23 years battling finally recovering from an eating disorder; 22 years as a worship leader; 16 years of motherhood; 5 children; and the consuming love of 1 God. For Pam Allen, there are many numbers that are part of her journey, but its her story that will stir your soul. Pam brings a testimony of healing and deliverance. Transparent and vulnerable, she is telling her story of a life lived with fear, pain, abuse, divorce and isolation; then finding restoration, safety, hope, peace, and love. Hers is an intimate pursuit of God, a relationship that has carried her through every moment of doubt, and led her to walk into a life of victory over the shadows of death. Pam is a musician, singer, songwriter, worship leader, and communicator. Traveling around the country with her husband in a full-time ministry to the body of Christ can be very demanding, but she is quick to emphasize that her first ministry is always to her family. Worship isnt just what happens for 20 minutes between announcements and a sermon, its a lifestyle.. It is how I love my husband and how I hug my kidsits being vulnerable and real with God, myself and othersits how I breathe! Pam Allen is reaching out to people in all denominations and reaching into the hearts of people right where they are. She has recorded one CD entitled Selah. Currently she is working on new music for a future release, and writing a book carrying the message that God has spoken into her life YOU'RE WORTH COMING AFTER. WORLD VISION There are 13 million children in Africa alone who have been orphaned just because of HIV/AIDS. As representatives for the humanitarian organization World Vision, Andy Pam Allen offer people the opportunity to sponsor children and provide food, clothing, health care, clean water, medication, shelter, education, hope for tomorrow, and hope for eternity. They have become part of our heart. We looked into their eyes and promised them that we would come home and tell their story to as many people as we could in order to help them.
