Details: Chad Supreme Records would like to say thanks to the One and Only God Almighty for the inspiration that this CD has given to us and to others. Sherell Rosegreen is one of many artists to record for Chad Supreme and has performed this CD with the star quality perfection that will rival any other artist. Chad Supreme has inspired many artists, some well-known and some not, to achieve a higher level of musical understanding and given opportunities to many to showcase a variety of talents and music genres. We have some of the very best in quality and quantity of musical beats and rhythms that are sure to please any style. We take great pride in our workmanship, and we invite the general public to access our many CDs and songs that have required much time and patience to produce in order to obtain the sound quality that we possess. Bernard Hall (producer) has the dubious distinction of being one of the first sound technicians for the Reggae Sunsplash Festival in Jamaica. He is from Kingston and has worked with and written lyrics and beats for some of the best in the music business. Over the years the culmination of his work has included R&B, Jazz, Classical, and Hip-Hop beats. He has produced approximately 15 complete CD works to this date and so many beats that it is hard to say how many. Artists and musicians that have worked with Chad Supreme include Robbie Shakespeare, Dalton Brownie, Noel Brownie, Hugo Fuentes (brother of Tito), Kila Williams (Pretty Ricky and the Mavericks), Howard 'Swelele' Da Costa, Mickey Spice, Yishka, Freddie McGregor, Carl Rogers, Glen Washington, Bunny Rugs of Third World fame, and too many others to mention. Chad Supreme's recording studio began in Miami, Florida in 1999. It is located in beautiful Hallandale, Florida and has a constant stream of artists who come ready to realize their musical dreams, some well-established and some new to studio recording. The response is always about the exceptional sound quality and original beats, as well as to the sheer number of beats available. Hats off to Sherell Rosegreen and Chad Supreme Records. You are the best of the best! Chad Supreme can be contacted at (954) 709-6962, We are always looking for vocalists to record. Feel free to call us at anytime! Be prepared to send a demo of at least 3 songs, preferably pre-recorded.
