Country influenced pop and rock; swagger and drawl, but with enough young blood to pump some pop and rock into Texas deepest wells of inspiration 11 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Alt-Country, ROCK: American Underground Details: Hello. We are the Zapruder Sequence. Welcome. We like to strum big chords and shimmy and shake to poppy beats. Pop songs, rock songs, country songs, cover songs are all fair game we do as we please, although we do aim to please you, that is, oh fair listener. We're all from Dallas, East Dallas (The EDT), Texas, and like to play music and Trivial Pursuit. James plays bass, and he'll drag out the saxophone when the mood strikes him. Jon hits guitar strings, keyboards and band mates. Jordan keeps up with guitaring, singing and breathing. Michael does a fair job of merging the disparate fields of drumming and architecture. The four of us play songs about women, life and Spain. Come see us play. Come hang out with us. Let us come hang out with you. Email us if youd like to play a show with us. We can also be reached at our website, zaprudersequence.net. See you around. Over and out. At Texas colleges, from the hippest to the most redneck, theres always the one guy who gets it. Listens to the best deep cuts in the country, blues and even punk rock is the youngest kid in the crowd at the old C&W gigs; wears Western shirts not because hes being cool, but because he got em from his dad. The Zapruder Sequence is like that one guyswagger and drawl, but with enough young blood to pump some pop and rock into Texas deepest wells of inspirationand their latest disc, Pretty Girl Charm Lies, is a heartbreak roundtrip from El Paso to Dallas, from Austin to Marfa.
