Going Global outlines the types of activity and capability that are needed to establish an HR function able to support business operations at a regional or global level. It focuses on two areas, the decision to go global and, once taken, the activities needed to deliver a global HR function. The Gower HR Transformation Series uses a blend of conceptual frameworks, practical advice and global case study examples to cover each of the main elements of the HR transformation process. Together, the eight titles create a definitive guide from one of the leading specialist HR transformation consultancies.
