Fiercely intense vocal and lyric delivery coupled with intimate portrait of the demons we all face on the road to knowing ourselves 14 MP3 Songs ROCK: Folk Rock, EASY LISTENING: Mood Music Details: Colleen Coadic was born in Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, to an eclectic musical family; an artist-singer mother, a bass player father, a self-taught grandfather who played accordion, and her grandmother, who while baking the weekly bread, sang in her native tongue - French. Coadic's prodigious talents spoke earliest via her voice, then ukulele, acoustic guitar, and bass guitar. Vocal prowess and harmonizing came easily. Song writing became a natural extension of sounding her inner landscape, and soothing childlike imagery - a specialty. At an early age, Colleen hit the road touring. No stranger to stages big and small, intimate and alive, with her band and solo, Colleen is comfortable and experienced playing every venue type and medium thrown her way. Her life is, and has been all about the music. Coadic continues to amass an impressive list of accomplishments, - Independent release and distribution of five CDs/20,000+ units: Say Anything ('94), T o D a Y ('96), Scream Of Consciousness ('98), The Opposite Only Better ('01), You Feel This Good ('04) - Extensive tours and opening slot performances including Ani DiFranco, Blues Traveler, Dishwalla, Laura Love, Alanis Morissette, Blu Cantrell, Cracker - CDs and merchandise available via live shows, online via Colleen's official web sites, indie label 12 records stores, CDBaby, and tour supported retail outlets. Some Soundscan tracking via CD Baby, significantly more expected beginning 2005 'Spring Tour; - Multiple live media (television and radio) performances, multiple songwriting and performance awards including: 3x recipient of the Canadian government's prestigious national F.A.C.T.O.R awards, 3 categories, 7x Press Pick winner: Anchorage's best performer, best singer, best songwriter ('98, '99, '00, '01, '02, '03, '04), 3x winner Alaska's Top Song Of The Year: Pop - Splashpoint - '01, Rock - By Time You Read This - '04, 'Other' - Shut Off The World, '04 28x Top Ten

Broadjam Artist - 20 categories, 4 songs in recent debut week, - Heavy rotation of two videos I Am - MTV Europe, CMT Canada and Manhattan Cable, NY, and Splashpoint, "Snowdance" Indie Film Festival feature, innovations in cinematography. In 2005, Colleen and band are busy with CD #6, expanding their state of the art recording facility, an aggressive US and Canadian media marketing campaign to support a new CD and their '05 Spring tour, a 12 Records' multi-artist tour featuring three of Alaska's finest artists/groups - playfully dubbed 'Alaskapalooza.' Expect ongoing excellence from this music driven artist. from the reviewers: "This cd is spilling over with diversity. It's the words we long to say and the sentiment that scares the hell out of us, and that's just for the lyrics. Her music has the substance that today's music is lacking, and Colleen has the gift of storytelling through her lyrics." CJ Cauley, Editor, SV web fanzine
