Sounds like a cross between Pavement and the Beach Boys: This is the best mostly-acoustic, middle-fi, indie-pop record you will hear this year. Sing along. 10 MP3 Songs ROCK: Modern Rock, POP: Folkly Pop Details: Cosigner makes the kind of endearing indie folk-pop that grabs you and sticks with you for days. -Michigan Daily ..."Center Rise Solo" is one of the best albums to come from an Athens band all year. ...Cosigner... produced a fine pop record that, by clocking in at 31 minutes, does not overstay its welcome, and despite the elongated recording process, sounds remarkably cohesive. The impressive quality of the songs goes a long way toward that cohesiveness. Highlights include the cowbell-infected romp "Lipstick Tube" and the lyrical masterpiece "Still You Want Her," which dazzles with the refrain "When I see her hair and her neck and her shoulders I die inside." -The Post (Athens, OH) A damned indie rock history writing and teaching genius. Or something like that. -Derek Catsam
