

Theology In Built Environments: Exploring Religion, Architecture, And Design

p The view of the environment in which religion is practiced as being integrated with theology represents not just a new theme but also a necessity if one is to understand religion's own depth. Reflections about space and place, and how they reflect and affect religious experience provide a challenge and an urgent necessity for theology. This is particularly important if religious practitioners are to become aware of how theology is given expression in the existential spatiality of life. Can space set theology free? This is a challenging question, one that the editor hopes can be answered, at least in part, in this volume./p
