Passionate and compassionate, literate and literary, Celtic nu-folk 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Celtic Folk, FOLK: like Joni Details: Rob and Catherine Atkins lived in France for thirteen years working with the homeless. Their songs are often about these experiences and these people. Sometimes, it's tender and tells of the caressing dark but sometimes there's an outrage as the stories of forgotten people are told at last. When they came back home to Wales they met two stunning musicians. They were the leading classical and folk flute player Catherine Handley and the dynamic young singer Jonny Quick. The more flute they put on the Frost at Midnight songs. the more they wanted and it turned into a real collaboration. As for Jonny's singing. just listen: it's tender and blistering by turns. Catherine's singing has been compared to that of Sandy Denny and Eva Cassidy but you must judge that for yourself.
