

Mp3 Captain Coconut - Everybody's Business

DOWNLOAD HERE

Fresh funk with old-school sensibilities, the talented seven-piece group's second self-produced record offers tight, crisp, cosmopolitan grooves, remarkable musicianship, and 11 original tracks of feel-good music - good for your body, good for your soul. 11 MP3 Songs in this album (55:47) ! Related styles: URBAN/R&B: Funk, JAZZ: Soul-Jazz People who are interested in Soulive Tower of Power Medeski Martin and Wood should consider this download. Details: Everybody's Business - a new record from Captain Coconut. Produced by Daniel Knobler, mixed by Alan Evans (of Soulive) Captain Coconuts second record, Everybody's Business, produced and recorded by guitarist/bandleader Daniel Knobler and mixed by Alan Evans of Soulive, is a well-conceived collection of contemporary groove music with deep roots in classic funk and soul. From the vintage funk of the opening cut "166 9th" to the otherworldly sounds of "Oscar, from the slow jam of the title track to the Eddie Harris-style fusion of "Atop an Underground, Everybody's Business delivers tight, sophisticated tunes with inventive arrangements and a deep pocket. The band also collaborates with two guest vocalists, Jon Seale and Eva Imber, showcasing its finesse in a pop context. Everybody's Business harnesses the power of the band's contagiously funky live show and builds upon it with studio savvy and supreme musicianship. Bio: After five years on the New York City scene, Captain Coconut has made a name for itself by simply playing good music. The seven-piece band has performed at some of New York's legendary venues, including the late CBGB Knitting Factory, The Bitter End, and two gigs at Gracie Mansion for Mayor Michael Bloomberg. The band has won several competitions, including Going.com's NYC Band Showcase, NYU's Battle of The Bands 2008, Bambu Rolling Paper's Band of the Month (June '08), and was awarded Honorable Mention at the 2007 Musicians Emerging Artists NY Festival. They've played numerous colleges, including Wesleyan, Vassar, and New York University, and have performed twice in New Orleans during JazzFest '06 '07, opening for Bill Summers and Marc Stone. Captain Coconut is: Daniel Knobler - guitar/bandleader/producer Zack Rosen - bass Matt Porter - organ/wurlitzer Mike Mitchell - drums Matt Chiasson - tenor/alto sax Jon Saraga - trumpet Danny Rivera - baritone sax/horn arrangements Press: "terse, snappy neo-funk" - John Swenson, offBeat Magazine "Seven guys with a serious affinity for New Orleans music." - Keith Spera, New Orleans Times-Piccauyme "Captain Coconut is clever, gleeful, unadulterated funk... As long as there's a demand for funky music, Captain Coconut will keep making their dynamic and impressive sounds." - Morenkie Fajana, Washington Square News

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals:

MP3 In Color - In Color \(the Lamp Album\)