Improv crossed with deep composition, beauty crossed with assault, live energy crossed with studio sound, DDYGG finds its balance 8 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Free Jazz, JAZZ: Bebop Details: NCM East Records is pleased to announce the release of an adventurous new album, Live at Joan's, from a collective of active NYC improvisers called DDYGG. The group blends dense and romantic, highly arranged harmony with stretches of seething rage. Recorded in a giant industrial space in Brooklyn, Live at Joan's pulses with the energy of its live audience prodded by the drums, the bouncing trombone and clarinet, flowing guitar lines and booming contra-alto clarinet. Improv crossed with deep composition, beauty crossed with assault, live energy crossed with studio sound, DDYGG finds its balance. To complement the unconventional instrumentation and recording, the cd package features some unexpected and provoking artwork from a talented eight-year-old collaborator. About DDYGG: Featuring Khabu Doug Young (guitar), Mark Dodge (drums), Michael McGinnis (clarinet, soprano and tenor saxophone, pennywhistle), Brian Drye (trombone) and Matt Glassmeyer (amplified contra-alto clarinet and misc. sounds), DDYGG's formation was far from arbitrary. Loosely, over a two-year period, these players found themselves continuously revisiting their collective chemistry in New York venues for improvisation and new music. Whether called a band, an ensemble, an event or an experiment, DDYGG rests on an anything-goes aesthetic that aims to eloquently blend their highly personal sounds.
