Folk pop with old soul; smart, adult contemporary folk pop with echoes of Shawn Colvin and Joan Baez 13 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, ROCK: Acoustic Details: This was my debut album - produced by me and some talented folks back in 1996. It still feel bold at first listen..I have since gone on to produce several other CDs...but this will always stand alone as my flagship piece. I won the Lilith Fair Competition some years back...so if you're looking for genre comparisons... Some writer once said of me: "Deborah writes with the quirkiness of Elvis Costello, exhibits melodic influences from Tom Waits to Suzanne Vega to The Police, and possesses showmanship that might be likened to Lily Tomlin and Spalding Gray.
Alrighy then.... The best thing about this music is that you can tell that it comes from a place in my heart where art lives. Enjoy! I founded Artists for Literacy in 2000. If you search on this site for SIBL (songs inspired by literature) you'll find some more CDs...or check out artistsforliteracy.org
