

Mp3 Eastman - Flame ( 1st Edition )

DOWNLOAD HERE

A dark soundtrack like album which fuses house music and trip hop beats together to create a rough and edgy sound that's sometimes disturbing with its off key notes. Don't expect any polished sounds here. 9 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: House, ELECTRONIC: Down Tempo Details: German Producer and Remixer Eastman's Debut Album is a ride thru melodic and soundtrack like tunes. From the emotional opener "Skin Burned" to the sexually charged and dirty "do it again" to the dark dancefloor killer "identity crisis [wannaBu]" to the melacolic and claustrophobic title track "Flame" which ends the album with a bang but leaving you wanting more .. The album also includes the fantastic "Fire" and "Come Forth" the first release from the album as a double a-side. Flame with make this winter a hot one for you and your stereo. Eastman started writing and producing in 1997. The first main project was Miss Moon a house music project with a german female vocalist. The collaboration's only release was 'Uptown - the remixes' in 1998 with remixes by none other than Wayne G., D-Bop, Kinky Roland and Eastman himself. The other tracks recorded have never been released. Uptown was released on his own label e2uk Recordings, which is now Thirteen[rec]. About the same time Eastman remixed Massive Ego's Euro Pop tune 'Fight The Feeling' giving it a more US House Underground feel. In 1999 Eastman remixed a Track called 'Woman' by Paris based Indie Pop Band Zem. In 2003 Eastman started working on his own material and recorded tracks for his debut album "Flame" due for release in late September 2004 . A taster track called "Fire" from the album is out now as digital download as a special free edit and the full version as paid downloads from legal online stores like Karmadownload.com. Eastman is also producing new Miss Moon material without the former front singer and "Feelin' Good" is due for release soon. Right now he is working on remixes for the new single by Zerocrop. Also watch out for the Eastman Avitas remixes of turkey's official eurovision song contest entry "Rimi rimi ley" by Glseren . Check out e2uk/video to see the exclusive video to the title track "Flame" !
