Our cd is for the people that love that country slag and sound. Be able to bob your head to but feel the realness of our situations. This cd has a little bit for everyone. 18 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style, HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop Details: Name: Carlos Orr aka C-Lo Age: 25 Carlos is the CEO and founder of Country Boy Records. He started in music in middle school as an all-state saxophone player. Carlos has gone on to start his own production company with his brother called Beat Down Productions. Currently he is a senior at Georgia Southern University, where he is majoring in mechanical engineering. And will be attend Fullsail in the fall to continue in his studies as a recording art major. Name: Antwan Orr aka Young Sheezy Age: 22 Antwan started his music career with Real Records in 2001, but joined his brother to create Country Boy Records and Beat Down Production. A very talented producer has great skills with the keyboard making inventive melodies. Epitome give that country hip hop sound mix in with an uptempo beats. We as a group try to follow in the foot steps of those in front of us but update that southern style with new sounds and beat arrangements. We tried to reinvent the south but also keep it real with my people so that they can still feel that southern slang. This album give the more hard side of life living in the small country town of Clio, Georgia. Please leave your comments on the ablum so that we could take these opinions and turn them into hits.
