The anxiously awaited followup to the critically acclaimed "Fool For every Season". 12 MP3 Songs POP: with Live-band Production, FOLK: Folk Pop Show all album songs: When We Were Kings Songs Details: "The bizarre ability to frame sad lyrics with upbeat melodies, creating three dimensional songs that justify the existence of the repeat button on your Cd player." That's how America's prestigious "Performing Songwriter" magazine describes the enviable talents of singer, songwriter, and guitarist Eugene Ruffolo, who makes his home in New York City's Greenwich Village. This fall fans will be delighted with the much anticipated followup to his debut album "A Fool For Every Season ", which recieved wide critical acclaim in both the United States and Europe, being hailed as a "veritable jewel of folk pop" by Germany's "Audio" magazine. With "When We Were Kings", Ruffolo once again astounds the listener with his unique talent of writing songs that are at the same time both deeply personal and universal in scope. And as if singing, playing and writing all the songs were'nt enough, this time around Ruffolo is in the producer's chair for half of the record, revealing another of his talents, and demonstrating that no one knows the artist like the artist himself. The rest of the Cd is a co-production effort between famed producer Ben Wisch, and Alain Mallet. Perhaps the first thing one notices upon slipping in the disc is Ruffolo's unique and compelling voice, described as "utterly intruiging" by "Jam" magazine of Italy. It is a voice formidable enough that Ruffolo has been asked to participate in recordings and live performances with artists as diverse as Garth Brooks, Livingston Taylor, David Wilcox, Spyro Gyra, Run DMC, Tony Bennett, and Artie Traum. His golden voice has also been featured in films by some of America and Europe's most famous directors and composers, including George Lucas, Brian DePalma, and Ennio Morricone. He's the first prize winner of both the highly competitive Telluride and Merle Fest song writing competitions.
