"Fetish Lane is feel good music boasting harmonies reminiscent of Crosby, Stills, and Nash." (Music Outlook Magazine) 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: FETISH LANE'S NEW ALBUM "TIME" WILL BE OUT THIS SUMMER! Fetish Lane is a "rhythm and roots" band hailing from Central New York. They are a five-piece band with John Edick on rhythm guitar, Ken Held on lead guitar, and Ed Gliha on bass. The percussion section consists of two drummers. Israel Lorimer and O.J. Levesque alternate between drums, congas, and other assorted percussion instruments ranging from cowbells to washboards. With two percussion players and three guitar players with outstanding voices, Fetish Lane's music is filled with three part harmonies, tasty guitar licks, and energetic percussion. Music Outlook Magazine wrote that Fetish Lane is "boasting harmonies reminiscent of Crosby, Stills, and Nash, and 'feel good' percussion from Smiling Izzy (Israel Lorimer)." Aside from the live album, the band released a Acoustic Brew, 2001. The band is now in the studio recording their next studio project, which should be available in 2004.
