Stumble. Catch or lose your footing...grab a guitar - sit in front of a keyboard and you hear the sounds that your life would make in music form. You meet a very talented drummer and killer producer and the two of you spend the next two years strumming strings, singing songs, tweaking knobs - into the wee hours of the morning while the rest of the world is out partying on a Friday night. You just want to get the right tone, the right melody - the right words. "Standing on Your Last Line" is the newest Jess Furman record. It's about learning to stand your ground. It's about learning that you can't hold onto things...hold onto some people. At some point you have to start living for yourself - no matter what you might find. This record is about finding out how to do that. Hope you all like it.... People who are interested in Sheryl Crow Amy Winehouse Feist should consider this download.
