An audio explosion of hi-nrg dance pop. 10 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Dance, POP: Euro-Pop Show all album songs: Watch Out Here I Come Songs Details: A little about the background of Kandystand.

Kandystand was formed in 2003 when leading dance producer Alodis teamed up with vocalist Katy 'D' to form a brand new European dance music act. In 2004 Kandystand released their first single 'Alone' a hi-energy dance cover of the famous track by Heart. After massive sales across Europe, Canada and the USA, in 2007 Kandystand decided to move to Holland, the gateway to Europe, and a bustling centre for the dance music community. A new production company 'Team Hayward Media' was set up to take care of the business side, and also this year visual DJ and graphic designer 'Pants' joined the team to take care of the visual design. The debut album from Kandystand 'Watch Out Here I Come' is released on the 12th of November 2007, featuring 10 great floor filling dance tunes. The talented production team behind Kandystand. If you found yourself wondering who produces this fantastic music, here's a brief introduction to the members of the team behind Kandystand. Music Production - Alodis Since the early 80s Alodis has been at the forefront of electronic music production. From the early days of Chicago House, through the Hi Nrg and Techno of the 90s, to the modern day dance explosion, these influences have come together in this latest audio extravaganza - Kandystand! Vocals - Katy 'D' Fronting Kandystand, curvaceous Katy D started her musical journey through her radio shows broadcast across Europe. After getting hooked on the Hi Nrg dance sounds played on her shows, a chance meeting with Alodis meant her path was set. Straight into the studio and here it is - Kandystand's first album! Visual DJ - Pants Every good musical mix needs its Visual D.J. With his artistic talent and flair, and years of experience in graphic design, video and multimedia, Pants brings to life in visual form, the world and music of Kandystand! Kandystand's new album 'Watch Out Here I Come' is also available through our secure online webstore at kandystand.com.
