Edgy pop-rock 13 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, ROCK: Acoustic Show all album songs: Polar Bear (Eating Vanilla Ice Cream in a Blizzard) Songs Details: Song notes: Monsters in the Closet-If you can't find them it's probably because they're hiding under your bed. Running-Hiding/Raise your Glass/All Fall Down-These properly make up a trilogy dedicated to the old adage: "Cheer up, things could be worse". (So I cheered up and things got worse..) All Fall Down dedicated to New Orleans. Round and Round-hanging out in the backyard with the sun shining and the garden growing and way too much time on my hands. Doing Alright-To all my old girlfriends who said I was crazy; you were right. Thing is, though, you were all crazier than me. Lies-written during the 2004 presidential election. Nuff said. Living in America-Who are all these people? I think I know some of them. My Girlfriend-Tom Petty eats Neil Young's guitar. Typical Political Man-I just love my "representatives" in Congress; don't you? Write them, won't you? Fly Away-One morning in Fort Worth, a lady pulled down the fire escape next to a crowded downtown bus stop, climbed to the 5th floor landing and jumped. My morning was better than hers. Looking Back-dedicated to my old "Crossroad" bandmates Mike Sites and Michelle Hendricks. Brand New Day-Hey, let's end on a positive note, say what?
