Details: Four part Harmony and Four sisters! Tradition meets flair as Maidens IV takes the stage! Life for these Justice Sisters is a performance in personality. Since their early childhood Havilah, Heather, Abigail and Tabitha have been active performers. In 2003 Havilah and Heather branched out from the family quartet to create the Maidens band. Two years later Abigail joined the engaging duo adding the alto sounds of her viola. In 2006 youngest sister Tabitha, brought a vibrant change to the band with her driving rhythms and sensitive acoustic guitar! A new dimension to Celtic music sparks to existence as these lovely ladies whirl into the Irish sphere. The Maiden's original compositions and unique arranging gives their sound a distinctive fire! Kindling a new style and genre as Maidens IV, the band now fans the flame of Celtic Folk music! Asked to return wherever they go, these angels of the Ohio heartland ignite the gala joy in children yet rock a solid thrill in teens and adults alike!
