Techno Ambient and Acid Jazz, keyboard, Synthesizer music 8 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Techno, ELECTRONIC: Ambient Details: Matt Linder has been making electronic music since the mid 1980's. Getting into midi and electronic sequencing from its inception, and building a home studio where he could write and record music at will. Over the years Matt has recorded hundreds of songs from rock, experimental, techno, or cinematic film scores. Recently Matt has been going through hours of tapes, midi files, and digital recordings to remix and remaster, or even re-record, these songs and release them on to CD. Matt currently lives in Los Angeles and works in visual effects as a 3D Lighter on motion picture films like "The Chronicles of Narnia", "Night at the Museum", and the upcoming "Incredible Hulk". Matt performs live, as often as vfx film deadlines will allow, in coffee houses and clubs throughout the Los Angeles area. Relic was written recorded in June 1997 using only Cakewalk, a Emu Proteus, Roland Juno-2, Korg Prophecy, and the lovely, organic SH-101. Everything was sequenced and recorded live to DAT tape. Matt Linder also plays in "Nerve Picnic" nervepicnic.com, and has an experimental ambient project "The Mood of Space" myspace.com/moodofspace, and a psychedelic folk project "The Mood of Dirk" myspace.com/moodofdirk.
