ELECTRONIC: Hardcore Techno, METAL/PUNK: Hardcore Punk Show all album songs: Sideways Across Networks Songs Details: From the ashes of previous hardcore, punk and metal bands, Jamie Burne took it upon himself to challenge the local North Wales music scene. Heavily influenced by the works of 65 days of static, The Prodigy and Atmosphere, Jamie Burne has warped and contorted vast musical styles into an incoherent blend of musical styling, marrying the passion of hardcore music with the sensibilities of dance music. After 3 long years of learning the craft of production and with an arsenal of music ready to unleash, Jamie Burne felt it was time to return to his position in front of a live audience. To perform his tracks, a live DJ was recruited to play the carcass of the beats and use additional synths and samples. The live performance also includes a guitarist, with Jamie Burne back on vocal duties to perform the tracks with his unique signature. Holyheads Portrait of a Lifetime knock out extreme riffs and passionate vocals that could quite easily fit into the New York hardcore scene. Manoj Koeri, Sound Nation This is Industrial with a capital Tungsten, this is Punk with a capital Hardcore, this is Fucking Amazing! Neil Crud. Their original style is another thing to compliment them on, there is no one quite like them around! Helen Smith promotions When listening to the music of Portrait of a Lifetime what strikes you are the time changes that throw you in and out of the mix. Intense euphoria and heavy riffage contorts the senses along with addictive grooves and passionate vocals.
