He's had cuts ranging from George Jones, "The King is Gone, and So Are You," to Emmylou Harris' recording of "Lovin'You Again." He's also had cuts by Dans Seals, Marty Stuart, Keith Whitley and many other recordings in the U.S. and abroad. On this CD, "Handstands Wooden Nickels," Roger had the good fortune to record some tunes with some world class players such as Dan Dugmore, Kenny Malone and Darrel Scott. This is an acoustic, rootsy approach that lets the songs shine through, yet still allows for some great musicianship. Roger is one of Nashville's best kept secrets; take this chance to hear something fresh and honest.
