You've come to the right joint. This sweet lady surrounds herself with nothing but legendary session players who are in high demand worldwide." --(George Seedorf, writer) Big City Blues (nat'l magazine) "Sweet Claudette (Harrell) has an interesting voice ... low, breathy, but at the same time strong and clear. Like coffee or cigarettes, it's an acquired taste, but one which, once acquired, will have you hooked."

----- (Barbara Scott) Blues Review (Detroit) Sweet Claudette is "an in your face" performer. She tells the audience upfront, "We don't come to entertain you. We come to party with you, so let's get this party started"! Claudette is great when sitting at a table serenading a group or picking on someone with one of her slow, wailing blues or captivating folks with a tune oozing with sexy innuendos, then dishes up some funk and join the dancers on the floor and never stops singing. You need either comfortable dancing shoes or seatbelts to sit through her highly energized shows. Sweet Claudette does cover tunes equally as well as any of her 18 recorded originals. Her rhythm section is downright funky, hard driving pushes it gently from the stage back, back, back until the your soul is penetrated to its core. When given a solo, each band member musically shines. Sweet Claudette's live shows are off the hook. Influences: Etta

James, Graham Central Station, and Sweet Claudette. She loves doing things in her own witty style.
