YOUNG DAMI (11) - "My Life" CDBaby's youngest artist ever and best selling album... 8 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Rap, URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix Details: YOUNG DAMI Young Dami was always ahead of his time. When most six year old boys were playing little league and running from girls, Dami was battling kids twice, sometimes three times, his age with his inherent freestyle flow. Now, at the age of thirteen, he has completely destroyed all challengers facing him in this rap game. With the support of his family, mother is his manager and his younger brother Da'Vieon a.k.a Demand is his business partner and live performance hype man. Young dami confidently steps into his role as next big thing with ease. After already having sold 2,000 copies of his 2003, independent, self-promoted debut LP "My Life," which he co-wrote every song, Young Dami is busy working on a new set of material entitled "Youngsta'z Point of View." On vocal sound and lyricism alone, Young Dami ages right in front of the listener, without using profanity, sexual innuendos, or a glorification of violence. Vocally, his sound can be compared to E-40 and of course other Midwest/Southern notable rappers, Nelly and Chingy, however Young dami sets himself apart from the rest. He effortlessly navigates his way over beats that leaves the listener involuntarily bobbing their head to the laid back flow that is reminiscent of the early 90's West Coast rap scene (think "The Chronic" by Dr. Dre) which is equally matched by his versatile laid back persona that runs consistent throughout his whole project. His talent in writing is reflected through his wide range of diverse topics of his songs. He goes from talking about "haters" trying to stop his flow in "Stop These" to young school romance in "Hotline" and "Puppy Luv" to a tear jerking song "My Momma" dedicated to his mother and long-time manager. In "Back fo me Gold" Young Dami accurately states "I won't stop until my casket drop/I'm on top 'cause my music is hot." Young Dami is not only ready to join the party, but rather take the seat as the new Prince of Rap. Note: 2 My Fanz Thank You, for taking time out to let me know
