Alternative R&B Pop tapping into David Bowie, Eurythmics, Donna Summer and Bruce Springsteen 11
MP3 Songs POP: 80's Pop, URBAN/R&B: Rhythm Blues Details: Antoine Porche was born in New Orleans, LA, and resides in Phoenix, AZ. He likes to think of himself as a rebel. He incorporates all types of musical genres. He writes songs that are quite different from the norm. His musical genre changes as well as his vocal delivery on just about every song. I think he wants his listeners to feel as if there're listening to several different artists sing on one CD. I think he pulls this off quite well. The CD BALANCE, puts listeners in total BALANCE with fun and food for thought. Something we could all use today.
