Details: Hi, were Below Jupiter and our hobby is creating songs... mostly piano tunes, but at times we dust off an acoustic guitar. Electricity?...sure, were not too old fashioned to welcome its energy. Our musical philosophy is a simple one ... it's all about the song. Our first album is a concept record Step Into Home. It has been released in two parts, Step Into Home (Act I), December 2007, and Step Into Home (Act II), June 2009. The concept story revolves around its main character, the philosopher... the setting, America in a time when its Indian trails are buried under stone, and even O Mic cant call this land his home. While our philosopher hits on many big truths, he also possesses many human frailties such as naiveness, self-pity and boastfulness. It is not until the albums ending title track, Step Into Home, that the philosopher receives the ultimate wisdom hes been seeking. If youre interested in unraveling the mystery of Step Into Home, dig in. If you dont have time its alright, just sit back Stand .shake Dance .and enjoy the music.
