Details: Bobby Tinsley is an amazing artist, who entered the music world in 2004 with his self-produced and written album "Page 1." The album spawned the top 40 CCHR radio hit "Addicted", and also includes the fan favorites Never Give Up On Love, You Moved On, as well as the heart felt ballad Won't Back Down Again, which features a duet with smooth jazz saxaphonist Eric Darius. Since his debut album's release, Bobby has graced stages all accross the globe, pouring out his heart one note and line at a time. His ability to transfer human emotion into words that we all can sing and relate to is nothing short of extraordinary. "Page 1" was certainly the beginning of great things for Bobby, and in May of 2008, he inked a deal with the newly formed Jean Rah Fya Records. Jean Rah Fya Records is owned by Doug Christie, a former NBA veteran and BET reality show star. Doug, along with his wife Jackie started the music label in an effort to bring more positive, uplifting music to the masses. Bobby was a perfect fit for the label, and his new album "What About Bob" was released in September of 08. The album was certainly a long time coming for fans who discovered Bobby through his first album or the world of MySpace and YouTube, in which he has garnered millions of profile views and plays over the last few years. The new album "What About Bob" marks significant growth for Bobby, and includes the internet smash hit "I'm Missing You". "Page 1" is a classic first album from a great artist, and you will definitely be glad you picked it up! There aren't many copies left of the original run of this album, and once they are gone, it will be re-packaged with some new added songs. Don't miss your chance to get the original, and to hear where it all began. Be sure to check
