Related styles: ELECTRONIC: Industrial, ELECTRONIC: Techno Details: ARTISTS: STEVE J.DRAKOS and ALEX DRAKOS. Featuring vocals and graphic arts by Susi Medusa. "Your cd is a killer and I will support any way I can. It's got rhythm / it's got beat, it's got attitude, and very good presentation." DJ George P., Front of House Promotion, Side Effect Radio Show, Kiss FM Athens, frontofhouse.gr - Greece "DerDRAKOS HELL-CD: You Have to Have It! Just got my DerDRAKOS CD in today and it is blasting from my stereo as we speak! This will kick your ass! Definitely the soundtrack for all types of Orgasmic Debauchery!" DJ Zeph, DarksideRadio- Redrum Entertainment, USA "I must say this is quite a good album. Real hard, fast electronics, pulsating rhythms enough to get that Devil inside moving... Thirteen tracks of pure electronic Satanic fury: you should all get out and get that CD right now!!" DJ Lord Dracul, Velvet Darkness on Radio Free Satan, USA Link from DerDRAKOS website:

Go and check it out you won't be sorry, the only way you will be sorry is if you DON'T go and listen. The production on this album is WONDERFUL and the lyrics and vocals are outstanding: DerDRAKOS definitely got something superior with this one!!" Whisper, PhoenixRisingEzine- USA "So far, I have to say one thing... Lust For Chaos was good but this one might just have historians talking about you guys for fucking aeons!!! Nice work with the dark imagery too." DJ Lord Genocycle, DarksideRadio- USA "DerDRAKOS lyrics: the themes of lust for sexy young girls,

European Nationalism without apologies, and Satanism. A person with that peripheral a stance and rolling into the dancefloor like a mainstream act has a charm about it I can admire if only because the worse cunts won't like it." - J.Ordnung, USA "This record can break the clubs walls, the rhythmic sounds wrap you up in menacing atmospheres and the layout is perfect" - MarcoD., Wertham Album of the Month - DerDRAKOS, Blood To Blood "After a long anticipated 2 year wait, DerDrakos is back again with Blood To Blood. Deciding not to hear the samples put up on their official Myspace, I decided to wait for the album to arrive, so not to torment me any more than I was already; I'm glad I waited - Blood To Blood excels beyond imagination. First the technicals: where their last album, Lust For Chaos was harsh, choppy and erratic in sound, Blood To Blood is a smoother production, making a smooth transition track to track. The vocals are stronger and more defined than their previous release; and you can hear the development and growth of them mastering their craft. Their visual concepts remain the same with the amazing and talented Suzi Medusa back at the helm and in charge of the graphics and design layout. Musically, Blood To Blood is their best work to date. This father and son duo are definite masters at what they do, and they do it damn well. There isn't enough compositions like this out there, with the last in my mind being Atari Teenage Riot, in the way both bands weave a harsh, techno/industrial atmosphere with an otherworldly/ravish/underground atmosphere. Tracks to support this theory are "European Hard Line", "La Vipera", and "Deep In Violence". This time around, Suzi's vocals provide her usual husky erotic blend of growling and screaming, but is more defined and clear. Favorite tracks off this album are "European Hard Line" with the stand out opening line of "We are Europeans, we don't need to be good. We are devils." "Welcome To Hell" is amazing as well with an enticing tone of voice in the opening line. By far, this is one of my favorite bands to date, and if you're one of the lucky few to be in their good graces as this ezine is, then you have a better understanding of who they are as a whole. I would love to see a live show if there ever was one." Score: 10. Written By: Mynx. PhoenixRisingEzine- USA "I have the "BLOOD TO BLOOD" CD! It looks great and sounds awesome!! I am enjoying the stuff and will play a couple tracks and feature you on Cyberage Radio TONIGHT!!" "That's a killer stomping industrial technoise, check them out ,support them, buy their album!!"
