Cruisy, sensual jazz vocals and piano, wonderful jazz quintet smoking in the background. Imagine a cafe, a club, where the townspeople go to hang out, for no particular reason at all - just to experience life, as it is. Cafe Society is the 'soundtrack' 11 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Jazz Vocals, EASY LISTENING: Love Songs

Details: "Memorable male jazz singers are few, and I had not yet encountered a contemporary male jazz singer that I would return to for a second listen. It would seem that the norm of jazz is female singers and male instrumentalists. Don Gomes is now the exception. Singing at the piano, Don is accompanied by guitarist Fred Grigson, saxophonist Simon Styles, drummer Ric Eastman and bassist Paul Pooley. Gomes' spotless vocal texture is a rarity among today's jazz singers, and his relaxing utterances are most conducive towards the light-hearted singing. The highly expressive lyrics are nearly a du jour of the days of the old-time bandstand, jazz era". -- Excerpted from a review of Cafe Society by Constantine Soo, dagogo.com
