A refreshing new outlook on the soul genre. By blending her mellow earthy voice with topics for today Epiphany has succeeded as one of the industry's people to watch. 10 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Neo-Soul, URBAN/R&B: Soul Details: As long as I can remember I always wanted to sing. Once when I was younger my mother asked me, If there were one thing and one thing only, that you could see yourself doing for the rest of your life. What would it be? I answered, I would sing. I would be a singer. That same desire rings true even today taking Epiphany from her first solo performance Cant Get a Man With a Gun, in the sixth grade to the acclaimed High School for the Performing and Visual Arts Grammy Award Winning Music Department and even the stage of NBC's Clash of the Choirs where she shared the stage with the like of Patti Label, Michael Bolton and Kelly Rowland. At the tender age of twenty-two singer songwriter and native Houstonian Epiphany has been accompanied on stage by the Houston Symphony, performed for Miss America 2003, and headlined as feature performer for Julius "Dr. J" Irving's Houston All-Star Game party. As songstress of choice for some of the industrys most prolific music producers, Epiphany has a bright and diverse career ahead of her. That same diversity shines through even in theater. She has performed in four stage plays; Our Feet Can Tell a Story, Whatever Happened to Our Love where she not only performed but co-wrote the lead in composition, The Gospel According to Hip Hop, and The Gospel at Colonus. In the latter two plays Epiphany featured as a solo vocalist. Marquee performances at the Kafi House, charity events, web publications, car shows, art exhibitions, compilation features the list goes on and on. But beyond all her accomplishments its her music that separates her the most. Epiphany is reminiscent of an age when music lovers ran the music industry and Apollos stage was the launching pad for the stars of tomorrow. This is not surprising with such musical inspirations as Lauryn Hill, Stevie Wonder, Meshell N'DejeOcello, and Donnie Hathaway. Epiphany's sound is so rich, so unique, so authentic, and so refreshing. Id like to think Barry Gordy himself would buy her record instead of a sandwich for lunch. I think my music is refreshing. I feel that I stay true to myself and thats what makes my musicMUSIC! A lot of people will look at my age and wonder where all the knowledge and experience comes from. And, I can honestly say that I dont know, its just a little old lady somewhere inside begging the world to hear my story, But its not just my story its, The Story, everyones story and Im ready for the world to Feel Me. With an eclectic sound all her own, songs composed by her fingertips, and chords strung across a guitar affectionately known as Shirley, Epiphany shows impressively. Creating music for today and tomorrow, Epiphany is the voice of a generation. Listen! Youll not only see but feel the passion in every note. I dont want to sing, I need to sing. There is nothing more that pleases me. Music is the drive that fuels my being. Like the blood in my body is filled with little quarter notes and whole notes! Im glad shes here.
