Musicals/Broadway, JAZZ: Jazz Vocals Details: GI Strantz from WolfFair present: Commedia Dell'arte on a sound stage where we all meet and display our varicolored creations woven together by love, indifference, laughter, tears, audacious aplomb and humble intercourse. In such a theatre, everyone is a player...since Sayers and attentive Ears each must play out their respective parts. Sometimes our exuberance allows us to have Wings Dirty Faces...all playful and innocent...that later become tormented by Night Shadows. Woman...an Unfinished Story...all lovely and perfumed is duly honored for her many endowments. Scoundrel laden is our indifference then, when viewing her with eyes askance as she becomes transformed into a bag-lady bent low by capricious twits merely Craving Images. Beware the dance of fools unworthy of bearing witness to her decent into the bowels of a city. Blue Light Theatre is presented with a desire to engage you...to inflame in you passion of a Gypsy with Budapest ways. You may further play out your roles by sending accolades or rotten tomatoes to us at WolfFair: wolffairor wolfchen@earthlinkor at CD Baby. What ever you do, play your many parts with grace...and the world will open onto you. ***** Those who take Blue Light Theatre home with them will know that we are fascinated by the concept and process of bending and blending various musical expressions. We also enjoy working with various performing artists who bring their individual characters to the stories...like in a Greek play. Speaking of Greeks, we greatly enjoy the music of Mikis Theodorakis, Maria Farantouri, Nana Mouskouri and Soula Birbili. The vocalist on our track, Blue Light Theatre...Angeliki Bazigou (Angel Bee)...is from Greece and has performed with Mikis Theodorakis.

Also performing in Blue Light Theatre is Yiorgos Kaloudis...a Rhodes scholar and musician extraordinaire who embraces with an engaging personality. Devin Thomas also brings a haunting materialization that will stalk theatre sprites. Everyone who really loves musical journeys should also explore the works of Theodorakis and other early school New Wave Greek artists. They will bring you into a musical world of passion that will engage you forevermore. If you don't believe this after listening to them, beware being embalmed by a culture that gives testimony to the death of souls. We recently experienced the performances of the Lengensdorf brothers (Jrg und Heinz) from Germany. If you enjoy music played with superb technique and engaging emotion...check them out. You'll be well rewarded. Gene R. Strantz is an attorney who has always found inspiration from the arts. He believes that art, in some form, should be required in elementary school...since the arts develop discipline, creativity, and reasoning. Feeling somewhat nostalgic a few years ago, he visited the farm where he grew up in Centerville, Minnesota...only to discover that it had been metamorphosed into a state park. Wow! From sweat to fete with nary a regret...well perchance a wound or so along the way. Irma H. MacCallum Strantz is a lassie originally from Canada who loves nurturing her rose garden and playing classical piano...when she is not involved with behavioral research in areas of health. The call of the Wild West was a siren song indeed...and we've planted roots in California. Do we love animals? Of course we love animals...birds, mountains, evergreens, you...the whole magic of our Planet Earth. REVIEWS: FROM RUSSIA WITH LOVE: My name is Ilya. I study in Bryansk's Agriculture Academy. I've been about to be veterinary surgeon. Our academy have a local radio station. I am a music editor. Our music collection very good music.
