From trip-hop to jazz to rock. a new raw sonic and emotional venture. 11 MP3 Songs ROCK: Modern Rock, POP: 90's Pop Details: From trip-hop to jazz to rock, Remembering Analogue will satisfy all your taste buds. With a power that will knock your sox off, you'll never believe that Girl Next Door recorded this album in their Hollywood apartment. - Voted OUTSTANDING POP ARTIST by the LA Music Awards! - "Gorgeous" featured in Miramax's 'Boys and Girls' Soundtrack, 'She's All That', FOX's 'Time Of Your Life' starring Jennifer Love Hewitt, Spelling's 'Charmed' and the new release of Felicity on DVD. - Girl Next Door's own Billy Lincoln jams with John Popper (Blues Traveler) live on KROQ's 'Loveline' with Dr. Drew and Adam Carola. Tucked away in a cramped second story apartment in Hollywood California, a small band practices nightly to get its sound right. If you listen carefully past the drowning traffic and barking dogs, you might hear a certain Girl Next Door recording old school electro-pop songs using reel-to-reel tape loops and lush abstract feedback guitar. During these times when cookie cutter bands saturate the air waves, no matter where your taste in music may lie, you can now find refuge in a new raw sonic and emotional venture. "Don't be fooled, this little "indie" CD measures up with the best of the Majors!" - (Mike Patella, Manager VIRGIN MEGASTORE -Los Angeles)
