Acoustic based folk/pop with lots of vocal harmonies in an easy-listening-sort-of-way. 11 MP3 Songs
FOLK: Folk Pop, EASY LISTENING: Soft Rock Details: Greg Brown learned to love music as a child in Alabama. His mother played piano at a local church and Greg had his first solo when he was five. His first guitar, a Silvertone, came along when he was twelve. He began writing songs soon after that, and continued performing and writing while attending the University of Alabama. He has lived in Ohio and now resides in North Carolina. Two years ago Greensboro, North Carolina chose one of Greg's songs, "Standing Here (Greensboro)" as the city's official theme song. The song is now available on the CD "Standing Here." The music was recorded and produced by Thomas Rowan of Sound Lab Studios. Talented musicians from throughout central North Carolina are featured on the CD. Greg currently performs as one of the founding members of the acoustic music group, The Wildwood Band.
