Fountains of Wayne meets David Bowie. Includes the hit, "Cassie Won't 'Ya?". 5 MP3 Songs ROCK: Modern Rock, POP: 80's Pop Details: [GWA is now called Neatly Real. This album bears the group name of GWA. Look under Neatly Real to find all following discs.] Neatly Real (GWA) blends Fountains of Wayne with David Bowie. Hard Rock Candy Sandwich is a Limited Edition EP available here. It will be followed by Built For Speed, the Demo CD for Neatly Real. Both are self-released. The genre is Adult Alternative Pop/Rock. Individual tracks will be Pop/Rock, Experimental Rock and Alternative Dance. The sound is upbeat with plenty of hooks and most tracks should be a natural for the dance floor. The full-length debut will be Chasing Wild Buffalo, available late 2005. Neatly Real is fronted by the American recording artist Gary Vane. Gary was raised in Southeast Texas in the concrete jungle melting-pot of the "boomtown on the bayou". Houston was Gary's home until his move to Northeast Texas, where he now writes and records.
