He has also played the Trombone for numerous Salsa top-10 bands such as Frankie Ruiz, Brenda K. Starr, Bonny Cepeda, and Vity Ruiz, just to mention a few secular artists; Ismael has collaborated with Christian Salsa Artists such as Orquesta Xariz, Marisol Soto, Papo Rivera, and David y Abraham. Ismael attended Bronx Community College and Lehman College for the Performing Arts and Major in Music Performance. Ismael went to the recording studio and began his own "Christian Salsa Recording" in 1997 after a re-emerge with God. Not only Ismael plays the trombone, but he also has a melodious voice; a voice he developed through long theory music science courses and singing with the University Chorus. Currently, Ismael lives Orlando, Florida where he works and serves God. Today, Ismael is serving God in a full capacity by ministering to young, and middle age music, and salsa lovers. Do not miss this opportunity of listening to Ismael's songs; his music and lyrics will take you through a celestial journey.
