Putting a modern edge on "traditional" country music is something few can do, but Jack Clayton makes it look and sound easy by taking that good old "Bakersfield" sound to a whole new level. This is one album every true country music fan should own. 10 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Modern Country, COUNTRY: Traditional Country Details: Musician, songwriter, vocalist, producer, publisher, artist, graphics designer and consultant; there isnt much that Jack Clayton hasn't already accomplished in the music industry. An accomplished bass and rhythm guitar player, with a baritone voice that is as smooth as silk, Jack has had the honor of sharing a stage with such top notch acts as Brooks Dunn, Mark Chestnut, Johnny Paycheck, Marty Stuart, Doug Stone, Kenny Chesney, Chris LeDoux and many, many others. He was involved in the collaborative tribute to Tommy Duncan, "A Salute To Swing"(1998 Hag Records)with Billy Mize Merle Haggard, as the project coordinator/album designer, and he was involved in the design of Merle Haggards gospel album, "Cabin In The Hills" (2001 Madacy/Hag Records). Jack is a current member of BMI, owns his own record label and publishing company in Nashville Tennessee, and has recorded two independent, self produced albums; "Safe In My Arms" (1988 California Country Records - co produced with Tim Goodrich), and "One More Mile" (2002 Ramblin Road Records - co produced with Don Stafford John Albani), and is currently in the process of selecting material for his third release, which is expected to be finished by fall of 2004.
