Singing since the early age of three, her voice has been her vehicle to experiencing the world. It is the vessel that placed her at Indiana University where she received a BM in Vocal Performance. After graduation, Jaclyn longed to break free from the reigns of classical and explore the rock music that she had always loved. She immersed herself in rock and began writing, recording and performing in New York and Los Angeles. She has played legendary venues (Whiskey a-go-go, Viper Room, Key Club), sang alongside the greats: Ty Stone (Atlantic Records), Terri Nunn (Berlin) and Vivian Campbell (Def Leppard), and partied with the likes of Kid Rock, Bob Seeger, Alice Cooper, C.C. Deville (Poison), and Lemmy Kilmister (Mtorhead)- just to name a few. Jaclyn appeared on both seasons of the hit Vh1 TV show, Breaking Bonaduce with Danny and Gretchen Bonaduce and has had several songs licensed for TV and Film. She has been featured in both Cleveland Magazine and The Cleveland Scene (along with Music Connection and Maverick magazines in LA and UK respectively). Her albums are available at Barnes and Noble. Through Rock music, Jaclyn has been fortunate enough to share her soul and talent with the world. When it comes to music, for Jaclyn, there has never been a back-up plan.
