Classic R&B with Neo Soul 12 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Rhythm Blues, URBAN/R&B: Contemporary urban Details: Jaire: Loc Squad Entertainment, LLC Early influences like Marvin Gaye, Teddy Pendergrass and Curtis Mayfield have paved the way for artist like newcomer Jaire to continue the Legacy of given the female listener the desires of their hearts. Now Jaire will take center stage and shine with his debut album "First Be Love". Jaire lead single "Down Like This," has already made waves at radio getting rotation on urban stations and galvanizing fans to demand an earlier-than-planned release of his album. Making sure people "get it" and truly feel where he's coming from is also of the utmost importance to Jaire, who penned 10 songs on the album, most written on-the-spot in the studio. Judging from the lyrics, one can assume that Jaire focused a lot of his attention on bringing back romance into the R&B arena. "God made women to be adored and that's how they should be treated. Romance has been lost and I want to help bring it back". In other words, Jaire will step up his musical game, raising the bar for other R&B artist in the process. His lyrical choices separated him from the sea of artists, and emerge him as dry land in this raising sea. "I want to create something so real and reflective that people just sit back and listen like "damn". Everyone has gone through experiences or something that's on this album, and I want to be able to articulate their feelings. While growing up in Los Angeles, California, other kids played cops and robbers, but Jaire spent most of his time singing in the church choir. Taking his experiences from the church and love of the music, Jaire will combine this in order to bring back what we all have waited for, "The return of real music".
